Principal Report: (Julie Oster absent) Tara Bernier and Renee Rigoli

Student enrollment - 23% of the student body is at QCVA, anticipate many returning in January.

Staffing update: Fully staffed, long term sub in carpentry, lucky to have good hires when semester is already started,

SWEEP update: complaints are down, only about 10 per day, going well, have had some (8) to call up , if 3 or more than they are called up to office, invite parents to site council for ideas with sweep to help with others hours in the day, we then discussed social media concerns with sweep and solutions for people to get questions answered

Anonymous Tip Line 480-987-3130, this is available for anyone to use, works like silent witness and answered immediately, we called the line and it is an automated response to leave a message, posters are out and promoting it, goes to the district and MCSO, ADD to the Newsletter

Winter Sports Update:

AIA has 3 benchmarks to meet in order to start, once it starts it's up to the district if it continues, but we are not meeting to start winter, if the county/city says we can't start because we are not meeting any of the benchmarks. Hoffman (State Super doesn't want to start), conference on thursday 11/19 with 6A conference . Club is still happening but no official tryouts yet, schedules will change and more information will follow the meeting of 6a conference.

Newsletter Feedback: include the anonymous line information in the newsletter.
