- College Application Day - August 21: All seniors were able to apply to at least one college or university. Representatives/college advisors from all in state universities and community colleges were on campus to help. A week prior to the visits counselors/advisors gave presentations to figure out students' top choices so they could go to that group.
- QC Youth Wellbeing Roundtable Participation-J. Oster participated in this roundtable focused on discussions about mental health, including surveys, healthy activities, places for kids to go in the community. Central christian Church cannot take kids after school yet. CCC does now have a seminary class. Key concern from survey results was the alienation students feel from adults.
- QC Homecoming Week
